CITY MUNICIPAL OFFICES
BANGALORE
Dated 28th July 1942

Dear Mr Narayanaswamy Naidu,

I write to inform you that Mr B T Ramiah, the Proprietor of the Bangalore Cafe, Avenue Road, was prosecuted by the Bangalore City Municipal Council, once under Section 144 for encroachment on Municipal land for putting up a stall in front of his restaurant and again under Sections 115 and 135, for unauthorised construction in the interior of his hotel building and also a balcony projecting over the Municipal land Notices were issued to him to remove the above unauthorised constructions and encroachment But in defiance of the orders issued, he continued the construction, and hence he was prosecuted as above He prayed for the withdrawal of the cases in his petition and the same was rejected He evaded to take summons of the court, but petitioned to the President for the withdrawal of the cases The President placed the subject before the Council inspite of my statement that the request of the party could not be complied with The Municipal Council have now passed a resolution for withdrawing the cases referred to The question of allowing the construction has been referred to the City Improvement Committee In pursuance of the same, the cases are to be withdrawn On the same date, the Council have resolved that necessary action under Section
